There have been numerous cavalry raids far into French territory, but in every instance they have been turned back by French cavalry sent out for that purpose.

Gaining in Lorraine, Says Paris War Office

PARIS, Aug. 28 [United Press] .- The War Office announces that the "lines are holding." It is insisted that in the fighting along the Lorraine frontier, which has now lasted several days, the indications point to an ultimate Prench victory. The attempt of the Germans to isolate fort is said to have failed.

It is admitted that the Germans have forced the gap near Longwy and are pouring regiments into France at that But the bridges across the Meuse have been deed, and the French are strongly intrenched from Verdun to Sedan, with an enormous amount of artillery massed in the trenches, ready to check the advance.

The British, supported by strong detachments of French, are holding the northern positions, with Cambrai as the base. The French cavalry forces are reported to have frustrated the attempt of the Germans to raid the Department of Pasde-Calais and to have driven the Uhlan invaders from Arras.

There is grave apprehension in the city. It is admitted that the French resistance is being subjected to the supreme test and that if the lines do not hold Paris may be besieged. All foreigners are being urged to leave the capital without delay, and as an indication of the plans of the Government to keep the population down to an irreducible minimum it is stated that no wounded are to be brought here despite the elaborate arrangements made by the hospitals to receive

Austria Declares War Against the Belgians

VIENNA (Via London), Aug. 28 [United Press].-Austria to-day declared war on Belgium. The Belgian Ambassador was handed his ssports at the Foreign Office, all diplomatic relations were broken off, and the way cleared for Austrian troops joining the Germans in the operations on Belgian soil, if necessary.

Until to-day Belgium was the only one of the Allied Powers at war only with Germany. France, England and Russia had heretofore made indeclarations against both Austria and Germany.

Yesterday, as I was standing on the railway embankment witnessing; withdrawal of the last of the Belgian troops, an armored automobile, with the lean muzzle of a gun peering eagerly from its elephant-gray turret, tore down the road at fifty miles an hour, spitting a murderous spray of lead as it bore down on the advancing Germans.

When within a few hundred yards of the German line, the car slacked speed and then stopped dead. The gasoline in the tank had been exhausted. Instantly one of the crew was refilling the tank, under heavy fire from the oncoming Germans. No driver in a Vanderbilt Cup race ever did it quicker.

Then the gunner gave the Germans one parting blast of lead and. with a jeering screech from the siren, the car went racing back toward
